LAWRENCE, DAVID

Pres's conduct of foreign policy; it is fad to snipe at Pres on foreign-policy question, to charge that he doesn't ask Cong for authority for his actions, but Const places on Pres responsibility for conduct of foreign relations; nation must unite behind Pres, Jl 4 p 84

Beneficence of Amer power; U S manifesting to world not "arrogance of power" but beneficence of power; Amer troops have been, are sacrificing their lives for great principle; Harold Holt, Prime Min of Australia, hails U S policy in deciding to preserve "freedom, hope, progress in countries of Asia," Jl 11 p 108

Sound liberalism is still answer; reprint of August 12, 1949 editorial; defines conservative liberalism, radical liberalism; one would have Govt regulate every detail of living, other would give individual maximum opportunity for econ, political freedom; conservative liberal is true liberal, Jl 18 p 120-117

Pride of color; reprint of August 23, 1957 editorial; words "inferiority", "inequality" heard frequently, few references to pride of color, pride of race; color can be badge of distinction, Jl 25 p 100

Who is to blame? wave of discontent sweeping country; people asking why Govt at Washington indifferent to riots, crimes in big cities; elected officials have failed to take steps necessary to maintain law, order, see that whites as well as Negroes given "equal protection of laws", Ag 1 p 84

LAWRENCE, DAVID—Contd.

Public interest comes first; "if free collective bargaining means anything, it means right to strike", said George Meany, but basic fallacy is that this assumes rights of individuals may be asserted without limitation, even though rights of others are impaired; answer lies in authorizing judicial tribunal to uphold principle that public interest must come first, Ag 8 p 92

So politics comes first? confronted with problem of how to end strike, get airlines into operation, Cong sought to put responsibility on Pres, while Chief Executive indicated desire to place it on legis body; political power of union labor has intimidated members of Cong; Washington today presents example of how bloc pressure can be exerted on Govt, Ag 15 p 100

Korea, 1951—Vietnam, 1966; reprint of December 28, 1951 editorial; are white crosses symbols of peace or only of death? of courage, of fortitude, of strength? answer shall be found when we discover secret of divine humanity; in courage to sacrifice self for others, man lives again, Ag 22 p 48, 49

Era of anarchy; historians some day will write that U S in 1960's experienced era of anarchy; lawlessness, econ confusion, war in which we do not recognize real enemies cannot be solved by "slipping, ducking"; voters must cast ballots for individuals who will put aside selfish interest, serve public interest, Ag 29 p 96

Blessed are work-makers; where is all money coming from to pay for billions of dollars of projects to achieve better life in Amer; it comes from increased profits in business so Govt tax intake will grow; job creation is key to human progress, intensive utilization of profit system necessary to "promote gen welfare," S 5 p 92

"What can I do?", reprint of February 8, 1952 editorial; answer to citizen's question is to keep informed on issues, express views, vote; Amer has been, is governed in major policies by wishes of people, S 12 p 116

"Full equality"—what it really means; Pres Johnson declares that citizens should be accorded "full equality, full sense of just society"; people, irrespective of color, have found mutuality of understanding in one another; "full equality" has been enjoyed by individuals who have proved worthy of friendship, esteem; this is essence of "just society", S 19 p 120

How constit was violated; excerpts from article which appeared in "Bulletin of Amer Society of Newspaper Editors" after newspaper strike in NYC in December 1953; recent strikes have suppressed newspapers, this denial of freedom of press calls for action by Justice Dept, S 26 p 136, 135

U Thant's "retirement"—helpful dilemma; U Thant's decision—whether to stay on or retire from U N—is not in itself important; episode does emphasize extent to which U N has disintegrated; moral strength of U S, other nations has not been mobilized behind concept of universal acceptance of basic principles of internatl law, O 3 p 128

Why not let people know? major readjustment in econ is inevitable; question is whether to take stern measures now or wait for serious recession; when will party in power accept full responsibility, adopt measures necessary to save Amer people from econ disequilibrium of grave proportions, O 10 p 120

Building new Asia; Asia has witnessed failure of Communism to help people there who are victims of poverty, illiteracy, disease, now is moving toward econ reconstruction under free, ind govts; U S does not seek to dominate Asia but to strengthen alliance of Asian nations by offering its military power, econ resources, O 17 p 132

Grave mistake; just as econ system was beginning to be modernized, Johnson Admin decided to remove stimulus, thinking suspension of incentive to capital-goods expansion would halt inflationary trend, but it is expected to do reverse by Citibank; Govt can play vital part in keeping econ stable but cannot do so if it resorts to political strategems, O 24 p 136

LAWRENCE, DAVID—Contd.

Wanted: responsible majority; day of reckoning is at hand; on November 8 Amer people can by their votes save constit govt from demoralization, if not collapse; Amer people must vote out irresponsible majority; what is needed is Cong dedicated to principles of Constit, to lawmaking to promote welfare of whole nation, O 31 p 112

Cong should fix ceiling on budget; fiscal affairs of U S Govt are in disarray; why shouldn't Cong, after studying recommendations of Exec, finalize budget based on capacity of nation to pay sufficient taxes for all necessary expenses; Cong must exercise its constit function, determine size of budget, N 7 p 104

Mission for humanity; Pres has just carried to Asia message of altruistic purpose unparalleled in history; we do not seek any territory, have no intention to interfere with self-rule, ind of any country; Pres fulfilled in person great mission of humanitarianism, peace, designed to bring better life to people throughout Asia, N 14 p 144

Needed: party responsibility; present election system—with no responsibility fixed on either party—is inadequate; Amer people must be given way to fix responsibility on mbrs of majority party in Cong, who should choose from among party's leaders Pres, Cabinet, both subject to removal whenever electorate desires change, N 21 p 140

Must competitors be equalized in money, skills? chief of Antitrust Division has argued, in effect, that large business in competition with smaller co should not be allowed to spend more money on salesmanship, promotion than smaller competitor; this is trend toward socialistic doctrines ineffective even in Communist countries, N 28 p 112

To spend more, to tax more—or to economize? nation is confronted with crisis in fiscal affairs; Govt overstimulating econ by billions it is pouring into spending trough; Govt should refrain from tax increase at this time, make substantial cuts in nonmilitary expenditures, D 5 p 112

Fed dictatorship? time was when Cong specified how tax money was to be spent; today exec branch decides who shall get public funds; with fed budget growing to unprecedented heights, natl legis is failing to place restrictions on arbitrary expenditure of fed funds by exec agencies, D 12 p 112

Lesson; lesson we have still not learned from circumstances leading up to Pearl Harbor attack is that we must communicate constantly with all peoples so they may be stimulated to assert their will against any irresponsible regime; lesson which December 7, 1941 teaches must be emphasized in order that there shall never be another Pearl Harbor, D 19 p 104

Inadequate defense against WW III; what's use of spending billions for "Great Society" when it can be demolished by nuclear war initiated by potential enemy; why are we in Amer neglecting construction of antimissile system of defense? why are we not warning peoples everywhere of growing danger of third world war? D 26 p 88
